The basis of belief;

1. A wholehearted acceptance of the revelation of God given in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments.
2. A confession of the faith set forth and summarised in such historic statements of the Christian Church as the Apostles' and Nicene Creeds, and;
3. In particular, the assertion of doctrine, summarily stated as follows:
  - (a) One God eternally existent in three persons; the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit;
  - (b) The Deity and perfect humanity of Jesus Christ, His virgin birth, His atoning death, His bodily resurrection, His ascension to Heaven, His mediatorial work, intercession and reign, and personal return in power and glory as judge of all mankind;
  - (c) The universal sinfulness of human nature, in consequence of the Fall, making mankind subject to God's wrath and condemnation;
  - (d) Redemption from the guilt and power of sin through the sacrificial death of Jesus Christ as our representative and substitute, and the justification of the sinner by grace through faith alone;
  - (e) The necessity of the work of the Holy Spirit in the regeneration of the sinner and sanctification of the believer,
  - (f) The unity in the Holy Spirit of all true believers in the Church which is the body of Christ;
  - (g) The divine inspiration of all Holy Scripture, its trustworthiness and its supreme authority and sufficiency in all matters of faith and conduct.
